Sub.: Acceptance of certificates on various computer courses issued by private institutions — Revised instructions thereon.

This Directorate's previous Circular No. 3E-3(Genl)/2005/5311-5425 T dated 06.06.2006 contains direction for acceptance of certificates on various computer courses issued by private institutions which is subject to the condition that the "duration of the course or the period of training in computer operation should invariably exceed 06 (six) months in any case".

The matter has once again been examined at the end of this Directorate depending upon the availability of a series of computer courses as are not covered by the earlier instructions on the issue. Certain decisions have been taken to keep pace with the situation arising out thereof. The decisions are as follows :

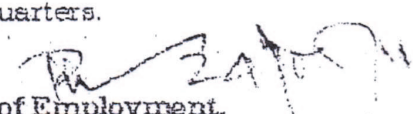

- (i) Certificates on Basic Computer Operation issued by private institutions of repute with duration of course not less than 3(three) months with minimum training period of 6 hrs. per week should henceforth be entertained at the Employment Exchanges in the State for registration in the appropriate N.C.O. Code.
- (ii) Certificates on different Advanced Courses on Computer Application attained subsequent to the Basic Course on Computer as at Sl. No. (i) above should also be taken cognizance of irrespective of the duration of such courses or the period of training involved therein.

All concerned are instructed for compliance with the above decisions with immediate effect.

Director of Employment,
West Bengal.
